RECORD OF EVENTS.

My Company with others of the Regiment was in the battle of Farmington in which one of the members of the company J. M. Sloan a boy thirteen years old was wounded in the right hand his leg was amputated. He lived some ten days and died. We layed at Corinth some time and suffered a great deal on account of sickness and suffering a fight with the Yankees every day. But they did not attack us, On the twentyeighth we were ordered two miles on Pittsburg to support a battery and Troops and there engaging the Campaigning and skirmishing the twentyeighth and 29th of May at Corinth.

(Miss) W. Hardcastle Capt.

On the night of the 29th we were ordered to retreat in which we suffered considerably from heat and hard marching. We left that night about dark and did not stop until the next day about 2 o'clock without eating anything we were ordered to send our sick and camp Equipage to the railroad for transportation We did so. and lost most of our camp equipage Baggage and Guns belonging to the Sick We retreated a distance of about 50 miles to Mooresville to which we are now encamped.

[illegible] Co. left Gilmer Texas on the 22nd to Camp Cooper on the Clear Fork of the Brazos for the winter. After spending some time there we received marching orders, and on the 3rd of Oct. we crossed the Red River at Preston and went into camp on the Sandy about 5 miles from Sherman. On the 8th we were attacked by the enemy [illegible] and fought them about 2 hours when they retreated. We remained in camp on the Sandy 3 days. After remaining there 3 days we left for Dallas & Johnson's station on the T. & P. R.R. forming a junction with the main army. Our Regt. marched on to Corinth where we attacked on the 3rd & 4th Oct. The Reg. came into action about 1/2 past 9 o'clock. The company was under the command of Capt. Collins. We came off with 3 wounded. As we came into fire (over) another engagement that day.

On the night of the 21st the Yankees left Braxton and the town being only one mounted man taken prisoner.
Three companies, viz Hill's Lock Conelly's and Gill's left the next day in pursuit made an endeavor to cut off the retreat of the Yankee cavalry. Our division overtook them and when they were attacked by a vastly superior force & compelled to fall back across the river & take a position upon a hill together with 4 pieces of artillery we kept two of the enemy at bay until the wagons we got out of the way. We fell to Kupin & from thence to Holly Springs near which we are encamped at present. Loss of company 1 killed & 2 privates

Terms and Conditions on which Messages are Received by these Companies for Transmission.

The public are notified that in order to guard against mistakes in the transmission of messages, every message of importance ought to be repeated by being sent back from the station at which it is to be received to the station from which it is originally sent. Half the usual price for transmission will be charged for repeating the message, and while these Companies will as heretofore use every precaution to insure correctness, they will not be responsible for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery of repeated messages beyond five hundred times the amount paid for sending the message, nor will they be responsible for mistakes or delays in the transmission of unrepeated messages, from whatever cause they may arise, nor the delays arising from interruptions in the workings of their Telegraphs, nor for any mistakes or omissions of any other Company over whose lines a message is to be sent to reach the place of destination. All messages will hereafter be received by these Companies for transmission subject to the above conditions.

Lieut Col Hapgood,

Sir I would respectfully State to You for the Information of Capt. Hall from Co. G 9th Cavalry, that I have served in that Capacity since the 26th May 1862. — Not withstanding I may have in the habit of using spirituous intoxicating liquors to much so, as I have accepted of them, I cannot avoid the influence, so as to render incapable of performing the duties that appertain to me —

Actuated by a sense of patriotism, I feel it my duty should tendered a Commission, that at all times, & under any Circumstances to assume the responsibilities & performances of the duties of this Office — as the Circumstance I hope that I may be able to lay aside my Ambition, & serve my Country as a No less Honorable, but Much more Humble —

I Certify that I am not indebted to the United States; that I have in public Property in my possession; that I have not been dismissed Service; & that there are no Charges or Specifications which can in any way affect my character under the unconstitutional Rule of the Captaincy of Co. G 9th Ky Cav. Hoping that it may be accepted I remain Very Respectfully Your Obt Servt Stirman's Refiment of Sharp Shooters for Phifer's Brigade, C. S. A., was a field organization formed by consolidation of the 1st (Stirman's) Battalion Arkansas Cavalry and Bridges' Battalion of Sharp Shooters, C. S. A., per S. O. No. 59 Hdqrs. Maury's Div., Army of the West, dated August 1, 1862. It appears to have been broken up about October, 1862, and the companies returned to their original organizations.

of the Confederate States Army, having been captured at Pallahatchie Bridge by the military authorities of the United States, do most solmenly swear that I will not bear arms against the United States; that I will not conspire to subvert or impair their national authority; that I will not aid, assist or encourage the so-called Confederate States, their authority or their arms, either by act or otherwise; that I will not take up arms again nor serve as military police or constabulary force in any fort, garrison or field work held by either of the respective parties; nor as guard for prisoners,
